1. Fill in the blank: A data type is a specific kind of data _____ that tells what kind of value the data is.
   a. model
   b. attribute
   c. frame
   d. point

2. What are the key characteristics of a text, or string, data type? Select all that apply.
   a. Has numerical percentages
   b. Sequence of characters and punctuation
   c. Contains textual information
   d. Only two possible values

3. In a data table, where are fields contained?
   a. Rows
   b. Columns
   c. Charts
   d. Favorites

4. When using long data, each subject has data in multiple rows. This is because each row represents what?
   a. True or false data points
   b. One observation per subject
   c. Data in different formats
   d. Multiple values