1. What is the term for the specific area of analysis that encompasses every activity affecting or affected by a problem?
   a. Problem context
   b. Problem structure
   c. Problem domain
   d. Problem scope

2. What are the key elements of structured thinking? Select all that apply.
   a. Reveal gaps and opportunities
   b. Recognize the current problem or situation
   c. Organize available information
   d. Implement a solution

3. Fill in the blank: A scope of work is an agreed-upon _____ of the work you're going to perform on a project.
   a. diagram
   b. report
   c. outline
   d. to-do list

4. What are some strategies data professionals use to help ensure they work with data that is accurate and fair? Select all that apply.
   a. Maintain objectivity by not asking where the data originated
   b. Consider different viewpoints before drawing conclusions
   c. Collect data in an impartial manner
   d. Ensure an accurate representation of the population in a sample